Important notice from the Department of Developmental Services about:

Employment Brochures

C-2025-Employment-001

What to Know

This letter gives regional centers three brochures. They are about how people served by a regional center can get a job. They explain the choices people can make. Regional centers can give these brochures to people in their communities.

The brochures have information about:

- Job services
- The Paid Internship Program
- A new service called Coordinated Career Pathways

Questions?

Ask your service coordinator if you need more information about employment.
